The Queenslander Pictorial.

PARADISEA APODA

OR GREAT BIRD OF PARADISE.

See "Science"

Rolling Back the Enemy.

Australian Official Photo, copyright.

Australian Artillery keeping the Germans on the move. So quickly did the enemy retreat that our guns advanced daily from one position to another.

Bringing the "heavies" into position behind the front line.

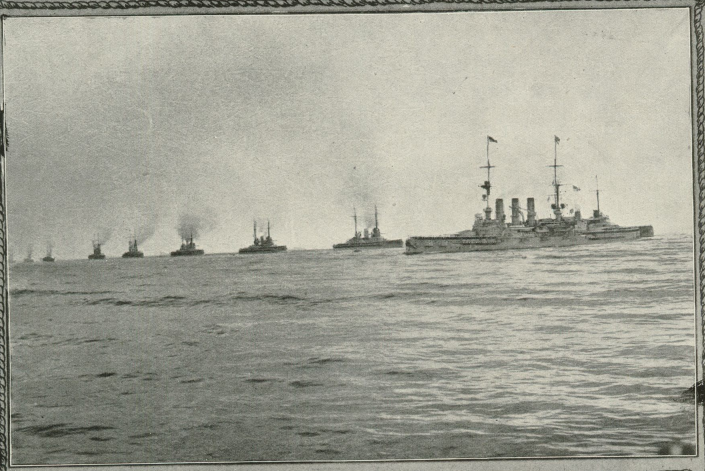
The famous canal and tunnel near Bullecourt captured, stormed and taken by Australians.

Australian and American Troops watering their horses at a village near the front.

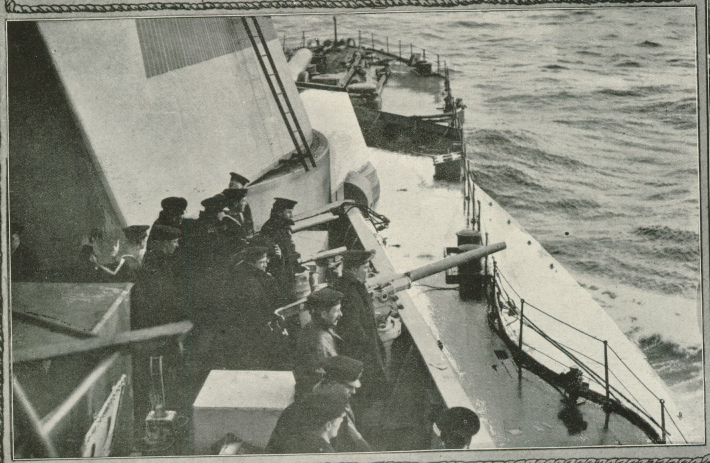
WHEN THE GERMAN FLEET SURRENDERED

Central News, photo

Admiral Sir David Beatty on the bridge of the flagship ("Queen Elizabeth") waving his cap in the last ceremony of the Grand Fleet



The German fleet of 22 Battleships, Battle Cruisers and Light Cruisers approaching the Grand Fleet

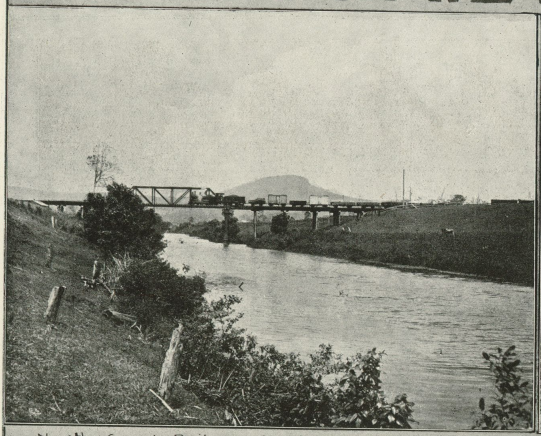


Men were all at action stations with guns trained in event of treachery

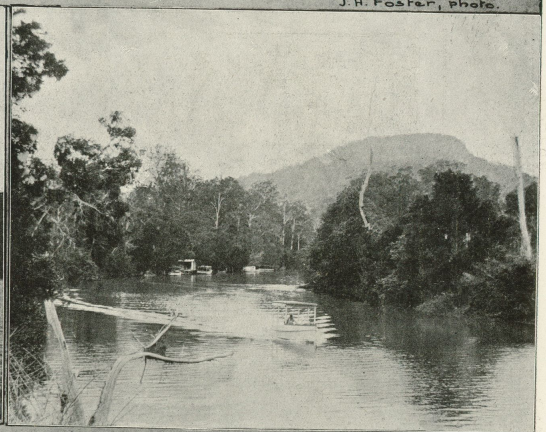
Men of the lower deck gun crew in their flash masks watching the German fleet coming in

SCENES ON THE MAROOCHY RIVER

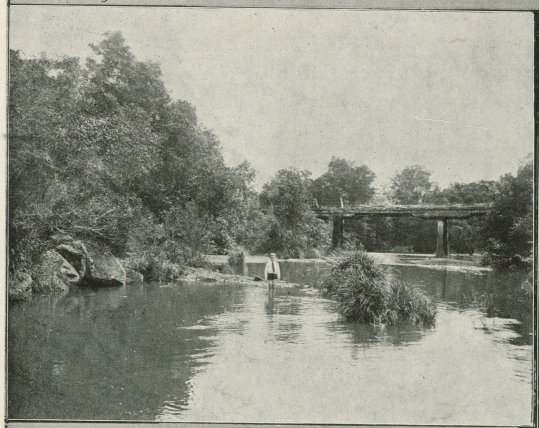
J. H. Foster, Photo.



North Coast Railway bridge over Maroochy River at Yandina—Minderry Mountain in the background

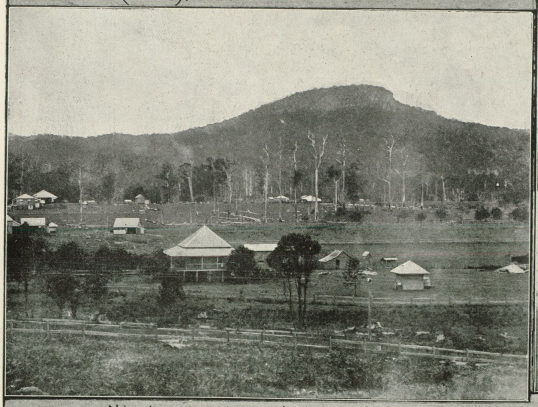


Landing stage at Yandina. Passengers and mails travel from here by motor boat to Maroochydore—Minderry Mountain in background.

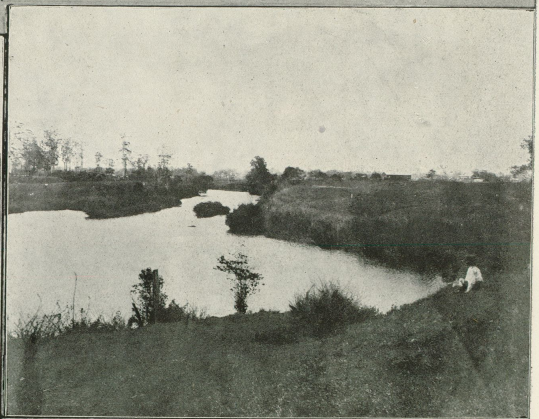


Old traffic bridge on main Brisbane to Gympie road. This bridge has been closed to traffic for about five years owing to it being out of repair. It is now being put in order, local residents having subscribed £100 toward the cost (£200).

A fresh in the river.



Minderry Mountain, Yandina



View of the South Arm of the Maroochy River.

IN STRANGE PLACES.

Native village, Duke of York Isl. (German New Guinea)

A Coconut Grove, Kabakon, Duke of York Group.

Thos. J. McMahon photo

A NOTABLE GROUP OF EUROPEAN STATESMEN ASSEMBLED IN LONDON.

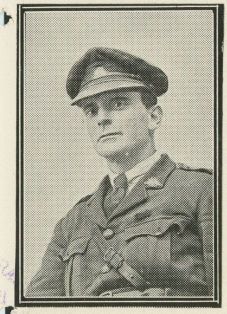
Left to right: Signor Orlando (Premier of Italy), Mr. Bonar Law (Chancellor and Leader of the Government in the House of Commons), M. Clemenceau (Premier of France), Lord Curzon (Lord President and Leader of the Government in the House of Lords), Mr. Lloyd George (British Prime Minister), Baron Sonnino (Italian Minister for Foreign Affairs).

—"Central News" photo.

DELEGATES TO THE ANNUAL DISTRICT CONFERENCE OF THE M.U.I.O.O.F.
Held at Rosewood on Monday, January 27.

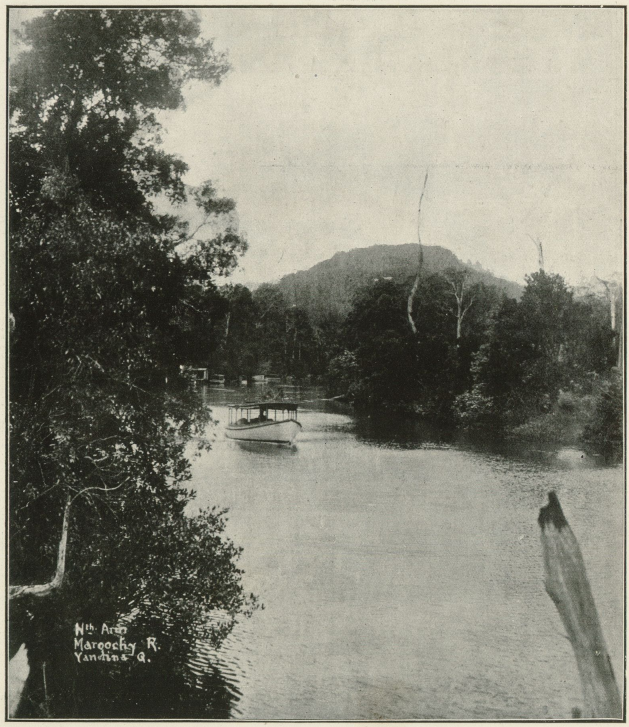
—T. Dunn photo.

MIDSHIPMAN O. F. M'MAHON,
Whose interesting account of the handing over of the German fleet to the British Grand Fleet on November 21 appears on page 29 of this issue.



LIEUT. G. S. DODDS,
Of the 41st Battalion, A.I.F., who formerly resided at Alfred-street, Sandgate; died of wounds in France, September 29, 1918.

ADMIRAL VISCOUNT JELLICOE AND LADY JELLICOE,
Who are about to visit Australia on board H.M.S. New Zealand.



THE NORTH ARM OF THE MAROOCHY RIVER AT YANDINA.
—J. H. Foster photo.

CHURCH OF ENGLAND SOLDIERS' REST HOUSE AT COOLANGATTA, POINT DANGER.
The home has been much appreciated by convalescent soldiers, many of whom find health and strength within its hospitable walls.

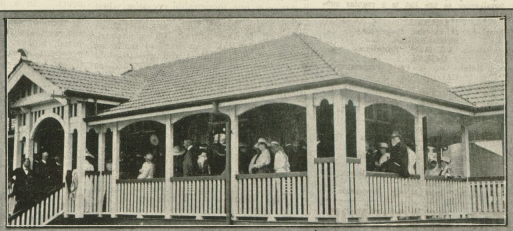
THE KING BIRD OF PARADISE (CICINNURUS REGIUS).

SIX-SHAFTED BIRD OF PARADISE (PAROTIA SEXPENNIS).

TYPICAL BIRDS OF PARADISE.—See "Science and Nature Study."

Opening of the New Epileptic Home at Toowoomba

General view of the Home.

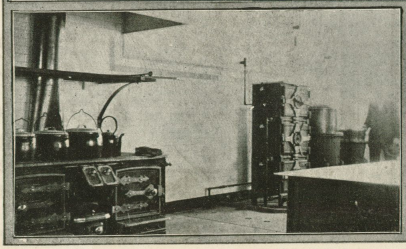


The Official opening ceremony

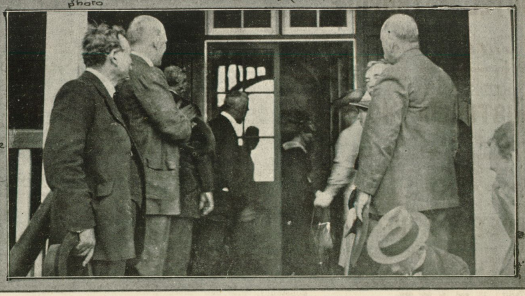
One of the wards

C. W. Callaghan, photo

Matron Conway (in the centre) and two nurses



Up-to-date steam cookers and stoves.



Lady Goold Adams opening the door with the silver key